

ICD Collaboration Project

ICD is an active member of the Cookstown and Dungannon Area Learning Community. As a sub group of this community, the Dungannon Learning Partnership, comprises St Patrick's College Dungannon, Drumglass High School and Integrated College Dungannon. This partnership has successfully pooled resources enabling the three schools involved to offer nine extra subjects to their students in Lower Sixth. For this academic year, 08/09, students choosing to enrol in ICD's Sixth Form had access to 23 courses.
