

ICD Declaration of Rights

At ICD EVERYONE has the right to:

- education
- be treated with dignity and respect
- a warm, safe and secure environment which is clean and healthy
- have their personal space and property respected
- freedom of thought, conscience and religion without prejudice
- a nationality and the right to express their nationality and cultural identity
- equal opportunities regardless of nationality, creed, gender, background, age or ability
- privacy
- be heard and to express opinions
- information
- rest and leisure
- no one should be subjected to cruel, degrading or inhuman treatment or punishment
- responsibility

